

Karen Wright, CPO®, CRTS™
Creator and Owner
Life Simplified, LLC

Thank you for reaching out to Senior Transitions, a division of Life Simplified, to help you with your transition!

Our team of trained relocation specialists understand the burdens that a transition places on seniors and their families. We are dedicated to simplifying this process every step of the way. We work side-by-side with you to make those difficult decisions about relocating and/or downsizing. We also make sure the experience is as smooth and stress-free as possible.

I work with a great team of certified and licensed professionals that specialize in senior transitions. This includes real estate agents, a moving company, and a Senior Care consultant who will make sure you choose a living choice that best fits your medical, personal and financial needs.

As Huntsville's only Certified Professional Organizer®, you can enjoy the highest quality of services available in the industry. I have a talented team of organizing specialists ready to offer guidance, suggestions, and a customized plan of action based on your individual needs. Our organizing specialists are on time, arrive ready to work and stay focused on your project every step of way.

My team and I look forward to helping you through this process and eliminating as much stress as possible for a smooth transition!

Sincerely,

Karen Wright
